

SCHEDULE
GULF COAST CAMELLIA SOCIETY ANNUAL MEETING

OCTOBER 15 & 16, 2017

DRURY INN & SUITES and LSU RURAL LIFE MUSEUM
BATON ROUGE, LOUISIANA

Sunday, October 15:

- 1:00-4:00 Registration in the lobby of the Drury Inn
- 2:30 GCCS Board Meeting in the Ballroom, Drury Inn first floor
- 6:00 Reception at the LSU Rural Life Museum (LSU RLM)
- 7:00-8:30 Cochon de Lait at the LSU RLM
- To Follow - Live plant auction # 1 at the LSU RLM

Monday, October 16:

- 8:00-8:45 Registration in the lobby of the Drury Inn
- 7:00-9:00 Donuts & Coffee in the Ballroom of the Drury- Hotel guests are provided free breakfast.
- 8:30 Business Meeting in the Drury Ballroom
- 9:30 Bloody Marys and Mimosas in the Drury Ballroom
- 10:00 Live Plant Auction #2 in the Drury Ballroom
- 12:00 Lunch in the Drury Ballroom

1:15-4:00 Educational Sessions- Drury Ballroom

Speakers include Bob Dillemath on "Composting", Dr. Chrissy Mogren on "Pollinators", Mark Crawford.

4:30 Silent Auction Ends Promptly !!! Located in Drury Ballroom.

- 6:00 President's Reception- LSU RLM
- 7:00-9:00 President's Banquet- LSU RLM

Including presentation by Randy Harelson . Author of "New Roads and Old Rivers"

Tuesday Morning, October 17:

If you haven't already done so, take a little time to walk/drive around Burden gardens. Windrush is always impressive. The ginger/subtropical garden is beautiful. There is the Vi Stone camellia collection and the Florence and Charles Crowder camellia garden in the Barton Arboretum featuring pre-1900 varieties. Also visit the BRCS propagation areas.